Adult Protective Services

Adult Protective Services (APS) investigates abuse, neglect, and exploitation of adults who are elderly or have disabilities and who live in the community. Any adult who has a disability or who is age 65 or older that is in a state of abuse, neglect, or exploitation may be eligible to receive adult protective services.

Victims of abuse, neglect, or exploitation may get short-term help with shelter, home repairs, food, transportation, managing money, medical care, home healthcare services, and mental health services. Sometimes adults who are 65 years old or older or those who have disabilities may become isolated or ill and not have someone who is willing and able to help meet their basic needs. APS can help connect them to community resources and coordinate the care and services they need to live safely in the community.

To report abuse to the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services, you can go online to the Texas Abuse Hotline (TXAbuseHotline.org) or call the toll-free Abuse Hotline available 24/7 at 1-800-252-5400.
